BABSON INSTITUTE

EARL K. BOWEN

It is fitting that this book be dedicated to Mr. Earl K. Bowen because he has been the advisor to the yearbook for many years, and for the past three years, he has been the advisor to the Class of 1960.

Since coming to Babson in 1946, Mr. Bowen has been both a teacher and part-time athletic director, and most of all, he has been a friend to many of the men who have attended the school. Always ready with a smile and witty remark, he has been to the students both a teacher and a counselor. During the past year, he has turned to still another field—that of being an author—when his book on his favorite subject, Statistics, was published.

The staff humbly dedicates this book to Mr. Bowen as a token of our appreciation for all that he has done for the class both in and away from the classroom during our stay at Babson.

DEDICATION

FOREWORD

The Class of 1960 submits herewith its annual report of the year at Babson Institute of Business Administration.

With the hope that these glimpses of our year will help recall the "something" beyond the books and classrooms that Babson brought us.

With the belief that part of the past -- hopefully recounted here -- will be a guide towards our understanding of the present and our plans for the future.

With the expectation that the associations of the Babson community and the lessons of its teachers will live on and that our written, pictorial record may refresh, renew.

And especially with the back-thought that a tangible account cannot hope to recreate -- but only to suggest.

In that alone, our album will have been worthwhile.

CONTENTS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

BABSON INSTITUTE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
BABSON PARK, MASSACHUSETTS

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

June 13, 1960

To the Members of the Class of 1960:

If your education has been a success, you are now only at the beginning of the learning process. The fundamental purpose of a Babson education is much deeper than mere absorption of that body of knowledge embraced by the term "business education"; you should now be filled with a desire to learn which will motivate you throughout your lives.

As you are by this time aware, an important part of your education at the Institute has been received, not from books or classes but from interaction with your fellow students. Through your experiences with each other you should have long become convinced that the process of learning to live with your fellows with a minimum of friction and a maximum of purposefulness is likewise a continuing one. It has begun to have mature meaning while you have been with us and it should, in fact it must, continue throughout life.

A successful business executive must first be a realist, and he must include a deep understanding of his fellow man in his concept of reality. The pitfalls on the road to success are many and varied, but in my experience they stem from two main causes: lack of capacity to face reality objectively, and lack of capacity to interact successfully with one's fellow man, by means of whom and in relation to whom success acquires its meaning.

When you came to us as Freshmen, the means for coping with these two basic barriers on the road to success, perhaps even the barriers themselves, were not clear enough to many of you to be firmly grasped. I know that I speak for both the faculty and administration when I say that we measure our success as educators by the extent to which we have enabled you to grasp the meaning of reality. To know you as I have come to know you during the past three years is to be certain that we have not failed.

On behalf of the Trustees, Faculty and Administration, I wish all of you good luck and success.

Sincerely,
Gordon H. Frim
Gordon H. Frim
President

CLASS HISTORY

The Class of 1960 will be remembered as the last class that did not have to participate in a formal freshman hazing period. In fact, Freshman Week in September of 1957 will always be remembered as a very enjoyable period, especially the mixer with Lasell and Pine Manor Junior Colleges. During February of 1958 we held our first class elections, and Pete Shellenberger was elected President of the class. During our first year we had two class parties, the first in April at the Sidney Hills Country Club and an all-day beach party on the Cape early in June.

The number in the class was a little less when we returned to school in the fall of 1959 to start our Junior year at Babson. At great majority of the class tried to show the new freshmen that we were upperclassmen during Freshman Week, and the Class of 1961 provided some excitement when they rebelled against us soon after school began. However, we were the winner of the first annual Freshmen-Junior rope pull, and the hazing period extended for another two weeks.

Tony Coote was elected President of the class during the Fall Term, and under his leadership, we had a successful and enjoyable year. Our big social function of the year was a South Seas party at Eagles' Hall in Norwood in April.

The Class of 1960 will also be remembered as the last class that had to write the infamous Industrial Analysis. The situation was not helped any when the announcement was made in February of this year that the practice of I.A.'s was being dropped next year. However, most of us staggered into the library on the night of February 28, 1960, to hand them in after many hours of research and writing.

Frank Campinell was elected president of the Senior Class, and he and his committee helped plan the Senior Dinner Dance, which is an annual occasion in the Spring Term. This year's dance was held at the Ashland-Riverside Club, and most of the class and their dates enjoyed a fine steak or lobster dinner and an evening of dancing.

As the year ended, and graduation approached, we could look back at three great years at Babson. We have had three fantastic Winter Carnivals and two enjoyable Spring Weekend boat trips, and we have seen the spirit of school towards social and athletic events increase steadily. We hope to see this interest even greater when we return as alumni.

U.S. ARMY PROGRAM

Since 1954 Babson Institute has been selected by the United States Army as one of the nation's leading civilian educational institutions at which to train its future leaders in the fields of management and production. Under its present program ten Ordnance Corps officers are assigned each year for an accelerated eighteen-month advanced management course leading to a M.B.A. degree. This course includes in addition the regular Babson instruction at the Boston Ordnance District. This program was initiated and conducted under the able direction of the late Col. Lawrence J. Meyns, USA (Ret.), until his sudden death January 2, 1960. Mr. Walter H. Carpenter, Jr., who is chairman of Babson's Division of Management and Production, is now directing the Army program.

This progressive program is designed to prepare these officers for key assignments as procurement officers, comptrollers, and operating managers in the Ordnance Corps. The Ordnance Corps has prime responsibility for the U.S. Army's fighting hardware ranging from the pistol to the tank and guided missile. This requires such activities as research, production, procurement, development, maintenance, and storage of each weapon to its ultimate service by the combat troops. This is another example of Babson's many contributions to the vital defense of the country.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The Junior Class made its presence known early because of the Junior Committee that was set up to keep the freshmen in line. Some of the members were a little too demanding to the new students; therefore, a revolution by the freshmen was expected, and it took place during the second week of school. However, the work of the Junior Committee did a great deal towards making the new class a spirited one.

The big social event of the year for the Juniors was held at Eagles' Hall in Norwood during February when a jazz concert was presented on a Saturday afternoon. Most of the class and their dates enjoyed the sounds of Ken Hamilton and his Jazz Band.

The Junior Class, however, had their greatest celebration of the year on one Thursday afternoon in February when the Babson Globe News announced that the Industrial Analysis was being dropped after this year. Something that had been facing them since they came to school a year ago September was now removed.

CLASS OF 1962

The largest freshman class in the history of the school arrived during the last week of September. From the very start this class showed to the school that it was highly spirited, as evidenced by the revolt against the Junior Committee and the rest of the upperclassmen during Freshmen Week. The class started the year off by contributing several members to the soccer team. In the winter the majority of the fine basketball team came from the Freshman Class. Also the class contributed to the swimming, tennis, and golf teams, and it has been stated that the Class of 1962 is probably the best athletic class to enter Babson.

The class had no particular social events for themselves, but most of the class went to the three weekends and the other social events on campus. If this class is as spirited as it was the past year, it is going to make its mark here at Babson.

Blue Key, the honor society on the Babson Campus, strives to serve the school in as many ways as it can. One of their principal functions is to conduct all class and Student Council elections that take place during the year. Also, one of the Blue Key members gives the address representing the Babson students at Honors Day in the Spring. This year Jim Carr gave this address. Blue Key also serves the school by providing the ushers for both Founder's Day and Honors Day.

This year Blue Key staged a raffle of a Babson chair at the Fall Weekend dance. The raffle was supposed to be part of the Charity Bazaar, but rain put the affair off, so the money earned in the raffle was sent to a local charity. Blue Key also started a series of "Fireside Chats" amongst Blue Key and the faculty. The purpose of these meetings was to attempt to bring the faculty and students closer together concerning mutual problems. It is hoped that this program will be expanded next year.

Alpha Delta Sigma presented quite a varied program again this year. The big function of the Fall Term was the Annual Christmas Party for the children of a near-by orphan's home. The party consists of games, refreshments, carol singing, and a visit from Santa Claus. At each party it can't be seen who has more fun, the brothers or the children; the same was true this year. This Christmas Party is another of events conducted by the fraternity to strengthen the relations between the school and the community. The fraternity this year continued the support of an adopted orphan in Korea.

The big social event of the year was the Snowball Dance held the first Saturday of the Winter Term in Boston. This dance was an all-school dance, and the turnout was excellent. The music was provided by Ken Hamilton, a band that played at a great many of the school functions throughout the year.

The athletic teams of the fraternity made a much better showing than the year before. In football they upset Alpha Kappa Psi, and they defeated Delta Sigma Pi in basketball to keep in the championship race right to the end. A defeat in the last inning by AKPsi finally put them out of the race, but the opponents knew that they were in a ballgame right to the end.

Other events of the fraternity included several speakers, field trips, an advertising contest, and the annual building of the float. The Brotherhood also sponsored Brother Bill Ellis in the Mayoralty Campaign, and he and his workers put on an enjoyable show.

The AKPsi float

Before the scholastic year was under way, the Gamma Nu Chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi was off to a running start on one of the best years in the Chapter's history. On September 6, 1959, the thirty-second National Convention of Alpha Kappa Psi was held in Seattle, Washington, at the University of Washington. Brothers Aaron Cook and Peter Fenton attended and accepted, on behalf of the Gamma Nu Chapter, the first place award in the National and Regional Efficiency Contest. The award was Gamma Nu's second National Award and its third Regional Award.

Once again the Phoenician Ball was one of the outstanding events of the fall social season. Business-wise the Fall Term yielded two very enriching experiences: the first, a trip to the New York Stock Exchange; and the second, an enlightening talk on Capital Punishment by Dr. Donald B. Currier, retired Surgeon General of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Fall term ended with the initiation of four new brothers.

The Winter Term at Babson was by far the busiest of the three semesters for Gamma Nu. Not only was the rushing program started at the offset of the term, but the brothers also held a very enjoyable Winter Wonderland dance at the Blue Hills Country Club. Highlighting Alpha Kappa Psi's winter business schedule was a very interesting talk by Mr. Con Howard, Vice-Counsel of the Irish Assembly to the United States. Mr. Howard spoke on the political, social, and economic problems of Ireland. The winter term was closed out with the initiation of twenty-seven new brothers. Of this twenty-seven, one was a new faculty brother, Mr. John Patrick McMahon, C.P.A. and instructor of Accounting at the Institute.

Aside from several very fine social functions, the outstanding event of the Spring Term was the initiation of Gamma Nu's first honorary brother, Mr. Albert P. Squier, Director of the New York School of Finance. The Institute has the distinction of being known as "the place where Wall Street goes to school." Dean Squier is a well known and highly respected personality in the financial world. At an open meeting on the evening of his initiation, Mr. Squier gave the brothers and all those present a very interesting and informative talk on the mechanics of Wall Street. The brothers of Alpha Kappa Psi are very proud and happy that we are now the holder of the Tri-Fraternity athletic award, thanks to double victories in basketball and baseball.

The entire brotherhood of Gamma Nu also takes this opportunity to thank the members of its executive council for the fine leadership it displayed in making possible all the activities and events mentioned.

Delta Sigma Pi under the leadership of Samuel Telerico and his Executive Committee enjoyed another active year. The Fall Term's big social event was on Saturday, November 7, when the brotherhood and dates went to the Harvard-Princeton football game at Harvard Stadium in the afternoon and at night had a semi-formal dance at the Hotel Lenox in Boston. Even though it rained throughout most of the game, everybody who went had a good time. At the dance the brotherhood picked De Bensler, wife of Brother Joe Bensler, as the Rose of Deltasig. This dance was called an Alumni Dance, and quite a few of the Alumni returned for the occasion. At the end of the term three new brothers were initiated into the brotherhood.

The Winter Term was a very active one with three social events scheduled. The first was at Eagles' Hall in Norwood for the freshmen interested in pledging the fraternity. The second one was at the same place, and it was a closed Beatnik Party. This party was one of the most unique and enjoyable parties that Deltasig has ever had. The fraternity held its annual pre-formal dance cocktail party at the University Club during Winter Carnival Weekend.

The Spring Term saw the fraternity sponsor two more parties. The first was at Eagles' Hall, and it was of the informal variety. The second was the ever-popular "Down on the Farm" Party at North Easton, Massachusetts. Both of these functions drew large crowds. Also during the Spring Term, the fraternity sponsored "Babson Night at the Boston Pops." Through the efforts of Bill Wilson and Jim Keith, the fraternity was able to sell over five hundred tickets to this famous Boston cultural event.

The fraternity was not able to repeat this year as fraternity athletic champs, but it put up a tough fight before losing to the champion AKPsi team in the final softball game of the year. Deltasig did, however, win the interfraternity football championship in the fall.

During the year the brotherhood heard several outstanding speakers at their professional meetings, and the group took two field trips; the first to WBZ in Cambridge, and the second to Carlings Brewery in Natick. Deltasig also sponsored a mayoralty candidate, Brother "Tico" Navarro, and the group also won the Little Brown Jug for the best Winter Carnival float for the third straight year.

The Babson chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management had another of its typically event-filled years. With membership at a very high level, S.A.M. was able to provide good turnouts for the speakers throughout the three terms. Stimulating talks by businessmen have become a trademark of the organization, and this year's speeches were no exception. The speakers represented Bethlehem Steel's Shipbuilding Division and Raytheon's Personnel Department. The highlight of the Winter Banquet was a memorable address by M.I.T.'s Billy Goetz, author and lecturer on Management.

Field trips, always popular in an organization, were especially interesting this year. Visits were made to the General Motors plant in Framingham and to Carlings Brewery in Natick. Trips such as these have become an integral part of S.A.M.'s efforts to expose its members to the realities of the world of business — a world only slightly revealed to us through our texts.

The new chairman of S.A.M.'s many committees have been advised on their responsibilities and seem anxious to start accumulating points in the Fall Term to take first place once again among the country's many chapters. A special word of thanks is extended by the group to Desmond Pollard and David Prigmore for their many contributions to the successful program sponsored by S.A.M.

STUDENT CABINET

The Student Cabinet is comprised of the presidents of all the organizations on the Babson Campus. The president of the Blue Key chapter at Babson serves also as the president of the cabinet, this year's president being George Dunnington. The purpose of the cabinet is to meet and discuss mutual problems concerning the many organizations. The first meeting of every year is concerned with setting the dates for the various clubs to meet so that there will be as little conflict as possible. This year the cabinet held a meeting with the freshmen wherein every organization head talked about his particular club. This meeting, held during Freshmen Week, does quite a bit towards interesting the new students in the various clubs and fraternities.

The Student Council under the leadership of President Jim Carr had a very active year. It sponsored three weekends this year instead of the usual two. There was an attempt to have a Fall Weekend, and except for the weather, it turned out rather well. An experiment was made in having a dance held on campus, and the dance was staged in the Knight Auditorium Annex. There was supposed to be a Charity Bazaar on Saturday afternoon, but the weather was too bad, and the council was forced to cancel it. The Winter Carnival and Spring Weekend, both sponsored by the council, were the best ever.

Throughout the year the council dealt with many of the pressing problems on campus including jackets and ties at the evening meal, off-campus living for upperclassmen, and the establishment of better communications between the students and the faculty.

The Babson Globe News continued to serve the school well under Editor Pete Tourtellot. Although there was a lot of hard work each Monday night before publication, the paper was well-put-together and very informative. The Globe News was the first to break one of the biggest news stories on the campus in early February when they announced in large headlines that the Industrial Analysis was being discontinued after this year. The story brought mixed reactions to the readers when the paper was placed at the switchboard.

For the first time the annual parody issue was under a different editor than the newspaper's. This year's editor was John Yanak, and the publication "The Playbeaver" was well-read at Winter Carnival.

The Aviation Club has been on the Babson campus since 1948, and the purpose of the club is to give the club members a chance to learn about flying as well as do a little flying themselves. The club has a plane, an Aeronca Chief, at West-boro, Massachusetts, and the club uses this plane on several weekends when the weather is right for flying. This year, under the leadership of President John Spargo, the club made good use of the plane, and it was an educational experience for all concerned. The Aviation Club is one of the few clubs on campus wherein the alumni take an active interest in it after graduation; about half of the club members are local alumni. This is a small club, but for the type of club that it is, it is very active.

The Varsity "B" Club is comprised of the athletic letter winners who are voted in by a majority of the club. The purpose of the club is to increase the athletic interest on the Babson campus as well as improving the athletic program.

Some of the projects that the club undertook this year were a soccer rally in the Quadrangle on the eve of the first game, selling refreshments at the Babson Invitational Basketball Tournament and some of the other home basketball games, sponsoring a splash party after the Babson-Bates game, and printing basketball programs for the home games. The club also tried to help Tom Smith, our advisor, and his family after his unfortunate accident after Christmas. The club raised over five hundred dollars for Mr. Smith during a "Tom Smith Day" drive in January.

GLEE CLUB

The Babson-Mount Ida Concert

The Glee Club had four main performances this year, and all four of them were well-received. The first performance was during Founder's Day activities in the Knight Auditorium, where the club sang several selections. In early May the club had its annual joint concert with Mount Ida at the girl's school. This event every year is considered their most enjoyable performance. This year both of the school glee clubs sang well, and the large audience appreciated the show. The Glee Club also sang several selections at Honors Day, and they closed the year by singing at the graduation exercises.

The club's president, Peter Fenton, did a great job organizing the club, and Mr. Frederick Harris did his usual good job as director.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club is composed mostly of the foreign students on campus. The purpose of the club is to hear guest speakers talk on subjects pertaining to countries other than the United States. This year most of the speaker meetings were opened to the school, and the turnouts were very good. There were several good speakers on this year's program that covered a wide area of subjects. Included on this year's speaker program were men who talked on the Indian Village system in India today, Alaska and the opportunities available there, and problems in South America at the present time. Most of the speakers illustrated their talks with slides or movies. Two members of the Babson faculty, Dr. John Gibson and Dr. Henry Kriebel, spoke to the club during the year.

BUSINESS ECONOMICS CLUB

The Business Economics Club enjoyed another fine year under the leadership of the executive committee. Every one of the speaker meetings attracted large crowds. The two most popular speakers were a representative from Ford in Detroit speaking on the new Falcon and a union representative from New York. The club also joined with the three fraternities and S.A.M. in sponsoring Senator Madden from Lexington, Massachusetts. The club also participated in field trips to WBZ Television and the State Senate in Boston. At WBZ those that went on the trip saw television broadcasting first hand because the trip included the watching of actual broadcasts or filmings.

In conclusion, the year was very rewarding as far as the Business Economics Club was concerned. All of the speakers helped to further the education received here at Babson.

SINAI CLUB

The Sinai Club is the newest club on the Babson campus, having been started during the Winter Term of this past year. It is a organization made up of the Jewish students, somewhat fashioned after the national Hillel Clubs, located on college campuses throughout the country. It is the hope of this club to join this national organization in the near future.

The club during the first year involved itself mostly with organizational problems. The first president of the club is Stan Issokson, a senior who was a pioneer in attempting to bring such a club to the Babson Campus. During the Spring Term the club did hold two successful speaker meetings, and they served as encouragement for future years.

VETERANS CLUB

The Veterans Club enjoyed another successful year as one of the most active organizations on the campus. For the third straight year it sponsored the blood drive between Babson, Lasell, and Pine Manor. The turnout was very good, and it served as good public relations for the community. Also in the fall term, the annual Parody Ball was held at the 1200 Beacon Street Hotel to the music of Harry Marshard and his band. A new feature of the club meetings was a monthly dinner meeting at the Eagles' Hall in Framingham. This type of meeting proved to be very popular among the club members.

Among the other events sponsored by the Veterans Club was a work day to improve the beauty of the Babson campus and a farm party held in late May for club members, their dates, and invited guests. These two events also were very successful, and they further established this organization on the campus.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club is a Roman Catholic Club that is a member of National Federation of Newman Clubs, located all over the United States. The purpose of the club is to give spiritual education to the Catholic boys on campus. The Club is fortunate to have as its Chaplain, Reverend Arthur F. LeBlance, a Paulist Father. He comes to the campus not only for the meetings, but also to discuss problems with the individual club members.

This year, under the leadership of John Quinton, the president, and Bob Demko, the vice president, the club had another outstanding year. Most of their meetings were opened to the Newman Club at Pine Manor, and the turnouts were very encouraging. Among the topics discussed at the meetings were birth control, a controversial topic especially in the fall, and the chances of a Catholic becoming president of the United States. The club also held Communion Breakfasts at the end of each term on the Sunday morning during final examinations. These meetings included a religious service, breakfast at a local eating place, and a guest speaker. Pine Manor also participated in these three special meetings.

THEATRE GUILD

During the school year ending June, 1960, the Theatre Guild reached several milestones in the interest of furthering dramatics as part of the extra-curricular activity at Babson. The highlight of the year was once again the spring production — this year Frank Loeser's musical, "Guys and Dolls."

The first of the milestones was the establishment of a memorial plaque to be awarded to the student who contributes most for the betterment of dramatics during the academic year. The first recipient of the award was a newcomer to Babson, Descom deForrest Hoagland III. His fine job as rehearsal pianist and musical director of "Guys and Dolls" made this year's production the finest by the Guild ever.

The second accomplishment was the initiation of award certificates for production participants to be presented at the school's annual Honors Day Assembly.

1960 also saw the addition of fine dramatic talent from Wellesley College showcased in the lead parts of the show. Notably, this talent was highlighted by the excellent performances of Miss Donna Work and Miss Margie McFee, both sophomores of impressive acting ability.

With a great feeling of pride, the Theatre Guild extends its congratulations to the seventy-four members of the production and thanks for the fine student support, without which the play would not have been such a success.

SAILING CLUB

The Sailing Club at Babson has grown rapidly in the last few years, because there are quite a few students that are interested in this sport. The club has its own boats, which are stored at Woodland Hill during the winter, and during the competitive seasons of the fall and spring, they can be found on the nearby Morse's Pond in Wellesley. Because the club has been able to secure a place near the campus, it has been able to practice more than in former years.

Under Commodore Jim Hunt, and later in the year Commodore Hargraves Heaps, the club members sailed in many of the college regattas in the area. The club also held a closed party for its members and dates at Morse's pond near the end of school. After the progress gained this year, the club is looking forward to greater performances and better collegiate standing next year.

WINTER CARNIVAL

The Grand March to pick the Carnival Queen

The Queen, Sally-Ann Torson, is crowned by President Trim

The 1960 Babson Winter Carnival got off to a rousing start with the annual formal ball at the Sheraton-Plaza in Boston. Over two hundred and fifty couples danced to the fine music of Harry Marshard, perhaps Boston's most popular social band leader. The ballroom looked beautiful with the Plaza's famous chandelier of colors shining down on the floor. A special treat was a jam session performed by Marshard and his band near the close of the evening.

The feature of the evening was the selection of the 1960 Carnival Queen. After the usual grand march by the seniors and their dates, Sally-Ann Torson of Torrington, Connecticut, the date of Jon Cady, was chosen to reign over the weekend. Miss Torson was crowned by President Trim, and then was escorted around the ballroom by her date while the band played "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody."

GUYS AND DOLLS

Snake eyes

The Theatre Guild, assisted by girls from Wellesley, Pine Manor, and Lasell, presented "Guys and Dolls" February 20 before a near capacity audience of students and Winter Carnival dates and also parents and friends. The production was received with appreciative outbursts of applause and was acclaimed as the Guild's best show ever.

Frank Winch, President of the Guild, played the lead in the hit musical — the suave and persuasive Sky Masterson. The object of his affection, the doll that the guys wanted, was played by Margie McFee as Salvation Army lass Sarah Brown. In the play, as Sky chased Sarah, "good old reliable Nathan Detroit" — well portrayed by Edward Hall — was being chased by Adelaide, played by Donna Work, whose singing was one of the pleasures in a very enjoyable play.

The climatic numbers in Babson's presentation of the Salvation Army headquarters and crap games of Broadway were Winch's "Luck be a Lady," and "Sit Down You're Rockin' the Boat," by Jack Mansur and friends.

SATURDAY NIGHT

The Night Riders entertain

Saturday night's entertainment was at the Hotel Continental in Cambridge. The evening was divided into two parts consisting of the Night Riders and the Hi-Lo's. The Night Riders, a local combination jazz and rock 'n' roll group, really broke up the crowd with their swinging presentations, especially when they paraded around the dance floor for their final number. The Hi-Lo's, the famous Columbia Recording artists, sang many of their former hit tunes, that kept the audience spellbound. So great was this group that it received a standing ovation at the end of the show.

A special feature of the evening was the announcing of the winner of the Brown Jug, symbolic of the winning fraternity float. The winner for the third straight year was Delta Sigma Pi.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

For those who were still desiring to hear music and partake in liquid refreshments, Sunday afternoon was filled with a jazz concert at the Monticello. The music was provided in fine style by Ken Hamilton, the ever-popular local jazz group. They provided an excellent wind-up to the weekend. Somewhere around six o'clock Sunday night the 1960 Winter Carnival at Babson Institute came to an end. This was the greatest of the carnivals here at school; everybody had a great time. It might have been a little tiring and expensive, but it was very worthwhile and memorable.

SPRING WEEKEND

Spring Weekend began on Friday night with a semi-formal dance at the Hotel Bradford in Boston. The Babson students and their dates danced to the sounds of Ken Hamilton's band. An added attraction was the singing by the Dunster Dunces from Harvard during the intermission.

The big moment of the evening was the announcing of the Mayor of the Babson campus after the campaigns of the previous evening. The students took part in the election by casting their ballots Friday morning, and the winner was a well-kept secret until later that night. George Dunnington, President of Blue Key, announced to the gathering that the new mayor was David Lerner, representing Alpha Kappa Psi. He was presented a key to the campus at the dance.

BLOCK ISLAND BOAT TRIP

Providence Sunday Journal

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND, JUNE 19, 1960

Block Island: Population Paradox

Visitors Increasing, Residents Leaving

STORY AND PICT BY JACK THOMPSON

A few weeks ago 250 college students and their dates marched off the gangplank of the ferry Quonset for an afternoon's outing on Block Island. When those 500 people stepped on New Harbor dock, the island's population doubled.

This phenomenon was nothing new to Block Islanders. On some long hot weekends they have handled as many as 10,000 visitors.

This year they are hoping for more than ever. But as they form up to face the onslaught, they may well feel that their ranks are growing thin.

There are now fewer Block Islanders than there have been in almost 200 years. The 1960 census figure is 471. In 1950 there were 732—in 1940, 848. In 1900 there were 1,396 persons living on the island. In 1860 the figure was 1,320. In 1774 it was 575. In 1755 it was 378.

The early in the morning for Providence, Rhode Island, by bus, and then they boarded a boat for Block Island, a famous summer resort off the coast of Rhode Island. Although the trip over was rather rough, the majority of the students were able to enjoy the jazz music provided.

Once on the Island, it was a matter of looking for your own food and entertainment. There was a problem of finding places to eat, and when a place was found, there was a long wait. After eating, most of the students either walked the beaches or rode bikes over the Island. Around supper-time the boat left for the long trip back to Providence and then to school.

Mayorality was held this year in the Spring for the first time since it began two years ago. The switch in time proved to be very successful because the candidates made good use of the Quadrangle outside of Park Manor to put on their skits. This year there were four candidates, Dave Lerner of Alpha Kappa Psi, "Tico" Navarro of Delta Sigma Pi, Bill Ellis of Alpha Delta Sigma, and Bob Miskunas of S.A.M. The final skits were performed on the Thursday night before Spring Weekend at the Annex. All of the campaigns were well-planned and enjoyable to watch. Dave Lerner was elected by the school as the Mayor in the Friday morning election.

Blue Key again ran the campaign, and Peter Wilson did a wonderful job as chairman.

The 1959 Soccer Team

After losing the first four games of its season, the soccer team bounced back and won four out of its last six games for a season's record of four wins and six defeats. The team beat Salem Teachers, Nasson, Windham, and Clark. The last win was considered quite an upset because Clark is considered one of the stronger teams in this area, and moreover, the Beavers were playing away from home. The team took its annual trip to Maine, but this year they were beaten badly by both Bowdoin and Colby.

Captain Dolph Hanser and Manny Gutierrez were tied for the most goals with six each. Both scored in the big win over Clark. The team suffered a bad break when Harvey Feldman, the team's goalie of a year ago, was injured in the first half of the opening game of the season. This injury sidelined him for the rest of the year, but Bub Hahn after a shaky start filled in very well as he registered two shutouts later in the year. Another bright note was the defensive play of Fullback John Moran, who turned away scoring bids repeatedly. Because the team was made up primarily of freshmen and juniors, the outlook for next year is quite bright.

BABSON INVITATIONAL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Nichols receives the championship trophy from Tom Smith. Miller and Smith, the co-captains, are on either side of him.

The first Babson Invitational Basketball Tournament was a very successful promotion even though the home team was beaten in the finals. The reason for the success was the many weeks of hard work on the part of Athletic Director Tom Smith.

The co-favorites, Nichols and Suffolk, both scored easy first round victories over Burdett and Boston Teachers respectively. Babson had to fight a little harder for their victory over New England because they had a very poor first half. However, they stormed back in the second half to win going away. Stan Briggs scored 24 points and Ken Polhemus scored 18 to pace the attack.

Babson gained a bye into the finals, so Suffolk and Nichols had to play to determine who else would be in the finals. In a very close game Nichols won 50-45, which was considered a mild upset. About two hours later, Nichols was back on the court to play in the finals, but they still had enough left to beat Babson 55-45. Again Babson had a poor first half, but this time their second half drive was not enough. Smith with 18 points and Miller with 12 paced Nichols.

The basketball team had one of the best seasons in the school's history with a 12-9 record. The team was coached for the first part of the season by Tom Smith, but after his unfortunate automobile accident at Christmas, the school was able to secure the services of Togo Palazzi from the Boston Celtics. Togo in his stay at Babson was a popular figure around the gym. His enthusiasm and drive were shown in the team's performances after he took over.

After starting the season with two straight victories, the team went into a slump when school began again after Christmas. The quintet lost its first four out of five games under Palazzi, but then went on to win nine of its last thirteen games. Moreover, two of the early losses were suffered after great comeback attempts. Against a strong Merrimack team, the Babson five trailed by fifteen points at halftime but came back almost to take the lead in the last two minutes of play, before finally losing by three points. The most heartbreaking defeat was in the game against Suffolk. The Beavers trailed 45-32 at halftime, but they roared back to lead by six with two minutes left in the game. However, Suffolk tied the contest again and went on to win with a last second basket.

The most satisfying victory was in the third game against Nichols. After losing twice to Nichols, the Beavers were seeking revenge. Before the largest home crowd of the season, they won 60-49. Bob Bennett scored fifteen points for Babson, and more important he completely tied up Nichols star Steve Smith. Ken Polhemus also scored fifteen; Stan

Briggs scored eleven before he was injured late in the game. Another great win was in the second St. Francis game, when Briggs and Polhemus were out with injuries. However, paced by Bill Lunnie and Dick Duffy, the team reversed an earlier loss, 80-61.

A sign of a good team is its ability to improve enough to beat a team that it has previously lost to. This year Babson certainly showed that it was such a team by beating Windham, St. Francis, and Nichols after initial losses to each of the three. The quintet lost to only one team twice — a very strong Newport Naval team.

Babson defeated Wentworth, Bedford AFB, Lowell, Boston Teachers, Nasson, and the Alumni once and beat Gordon College twice. In the first Gordon game, the Beavers won a hard-fought 70-69 victory away from their home court. They lost to Bates, Merrimack, New Bedford, and Suffolk in their only meetings. The last game of the year was cancelled because of the big snowstorm. This encounter with the Boston College Freshmen was expected to have been a close one.

Briggs and Polhemus fought a year-long battle for top scoring honors on the team, before the latter finally won with an average that was less than a point higher than Briggs'. Duffy, Lunnie, and Bennett followed. Mike Demakis, Dan Gottlieb, and Pete Wilson all were valuable in spot duty. They supplied the extra help when the starters were tired or in trouble over fouls. The 1959-60 team, unlike last year's, had a strong bench, a vital necessity for any team's success.

The swimming team in action

The swimming team was started this year on a varsity level after it being an intramural sport for many years. It was only natural to make it a varsity sport because of the great facilities for swimming here at Babson. The team was started and coached by two underclassmen, Gary Parks and Howie Linstead. Parks coached the sprinters and distance men, while Linstead was in charge of the divers. Stu Speed was elected by the team to be the first captain.

The team had several fine swimmers that performed well in the few meets that the team had. Hargy Heaps was the backstroke specialist, while Speed, Tomas Ferandez, and Manuel Navarro specialized in the freestyle events. The team swam against some local teams in this area including Brandeis, Holy Cross, Assumption, and the Worcester YMCA. With the experience that was gained in these informal inter-collegiate meets, the prospects for swimming at Babson are very bright.

BADMINTON

Coach Dave Sime

Badminton at Babson as a varsity sport also was in its first year. The team was coached by Dave Sime of the Graduate School, one of New England's top players. It was through his efforts that the 1960 College Badminton Championships of New England were held in the Babson Gym the latter part of February. In this tournament Sime won the Men's Singles Championship, and also he and his partner won the Mixed Doubles Championship. Considering that this year was the first for Babson in this competition, the team performed very well.

The team had informal matches with schools in this area including Wellesley College. It is hoped that even though Sime is graduating from school, badminton will be continued at Babson.

TENNIS

The tennis team had a disappointing season with a four-seven record. The Beavers beat Nichols, Colby, Merrimack, and Massachusetts Institute of Technology while they lost to Brandeis, Bates, Holy Cross, Bowdoin, Tufts, Clark, and New Hampshire. The Colby victory was the high point of the season because Colby is considered a strong team. The match was in doubt until the doubles teams of Bob Parker and Dick Bristol and Bruce Dalzell and Bill Ellis won their matches within a few minutes of each other for a 6-3 victory.

Captain Jack Croasdaile had another fine year as he won a majority of his matches. The encouraging part of the season, however, was the play of two freshmen, Dalzell and Ellis. Both of these players won a majority of their individual matches, and they formed a very strong doubles team. At the end of the season the team elected these two men as co-captains for next year, and if their play is anything like this year's, the prospects for a good season in 1961 are very bright.

GOLF

The Golf Team at the Spring Sports Banquet

The Golf Team had a five and eight record this year, which was rather disappointing after its performance of the year before. However, it was a young team, and the future looks rather encouraging. The team's five victories were over Brandeis twice, Merrimack, American International, and Clark. The team took a two-day trip up to Maine where they got trounced by Colby and Bowdoin by scores of 6-1. At both of these schools, Bill Lunnie was the lone winner. Lunnie, a freshman with great promise, won nine matches during the season, the highest total won by any team member. Captain George Johnson and Fernando Fiore, one of the longest drivers seen in this area in quite a while, also performed well at times. The rest of the team was made up of freshmen, who improved steadily as the season progressed. The team is losing only one of the first seven members of this year's team so the future is bright.

The World Champion Boston Celtics chose the Babson Gym as the scene of their 1959-1960 pre-season training. The facilities were much to their liking, especially the location between Boston and Worcester. The team practiced for about two weeks in the latter part of September and early in October. They held several intra-squad games that were appreciated by the students who came to watch them perform. The training of the Celtics was an added attraction to the Freshmen Week festivities at Babson.

It seems that the training for the Celtics here at Babson was very adequate because they went on to win the World Championship again. In the spring it was announced that they will return again next fall.

Bryant-Annex won the intramural punchbowl after coming so close the past two years. For the first two terms it was another nip-and-tuck battle between Bryant-Annex and Off-Campus, the defending champions. However, Bryant-Annex had too much depth in the spring when they won the swimming, bowling, and softball championships to win the punchbowl going away. Tom Glynn and Charles Ramos were the two representatives from the dorm, and they received the punchbowl from President Trim at Honors Day.

The intramural season started off as if Park Manor South was going to regain the trophy they won two years ago. They were undefeated in football, and they looked as if they were going to run away with the race, but they had a very disappointing basketball season, and they dropped in the standings. Pub-Coleman and Off-Campus tied for the basketball championship.

The final standings were Bryant-Annex, Off-Campus, Park Manor South, Pub-Coleman, Park Manor South, and Park Manor in that order.

Alpha Kappa Psi made a great comeback to win the Tri-Fraternity athletic championship. They were beaten in both of the football games, and it appeared that they were out of the race, but they won their two basketball and softball games to win the over-all championship.

Delta Sigma Pi got off to a flying start by trouncing AKPsi 30-6 and Alpha Delta Sigma 20-14 in football, but they lost their two basketball games, and it was anybody's race as the softball season started. Both AKPsi and Deltasig beat ADS in softball, and for the second year in a row, the race went right down to the last game of the season. A three-run homer by Don Patenaude and clutch pitching by Bub Hahn gave Alpha Kappa Psi a 7-5 victory over the defending champions.

FOUNDER'S DAY

The school's founder, Roger W. Babson

The thirteenth annual celebration of Babson Institute Founder's Day was observed on the morning of November 12, 1959. Sharing the tributes were Mr. Roger W. Babson, founder of the Institute, and Mrs. Babson.

President Trim opened the program in Knight Auditorium with a brief history of the association between Babson Institute and its founders.

Following President Trim on the program was Earl L. Smith, Vice-President of Babson Reports, who delivered the main address, entitled "The History of Babson Institute." Other speeches were offered by Mr. Phillip B. Heald, President of the Alumni Association, and Mr. James D. Carr, President of the Student Council.

The program was intended to express the gratitude of students and faculty toward the school's founder. Mr. Babson, who had just returned from a tour of Russia, told of his purpose in founding the Institute.

The Glee Club, directed by Mr. Frederick A. Harris Jr., rendered "All Hail Babson Institute" and "Laudamus" before the audience of students, faculty, and guests.

MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR

Another year has come to an end, and another Babsonian has gone to press. It is the hope of the editor that this yearbook is representative of the fine year that has just been completed. The spirit on the campus has been the best that it has ever been seen in this editor's experience, and it has been the attempt of the yearbook staff to capture this intangible asset in words and pictures. The Winter Carnival, Spring Weekend, Honors Day, and the basketball games are but a few of these such functions that have exemplified the Babson campus as well as the Babson student.

When any yearbook is prepared, there are always many people responsible for accomplishing the final product. The same is true this year, and we would like to thank some of the people right now. First of all, the yearbook staff put in many hours of hard work in editing, writing, and laying out copy and pictures. Elsewhere in this book, these people are mentioned. Secondly, to Mr. Staake and his office staff for helping in the preparation of the various class lists, we offer our thanks. To Mr. Bowen, who as he did in years before has helped this editor in his capacity as advisor. The girls at the switchboard have been very helpful in passing out yearbook data, and the staff greatly appreciated their services. Thanks also should go to the publishers in New York, especially Mr. Victor H. O'Neill, who is in charge of the Babsonian for his office and Mr. Murray Modick and Mr. William Bailey, both of whom took a lot of the yearbook pictures this year. The above people are just a few of the many that have helped this editor, and if anybody was missed, at this time we would like to thank you.

In closing, good luck to the Class of 1960 and carry the name of Babson out into the business world in such a way that the school will be proud.
