THE 1959 BABSONIAN
BABSON INSTITUTE
BABSON PARK 57, MASSACHUSETTS

GABRIEL T. KEREKES

This book is fittingly dedicated to Gabriel T. Kerekes, a man who has crowned his successes on Wall Street and in the service of the federal government with the honored profession of teaching. His work as the representative of the Marshall Plan in Austria and revising the financial structure of Austria are but a few signs of his ability.

When Mr. Kerekes came to teach at Babson in 1956, he brought with him the knowledge of practical experience in his field of economics. As an economic advisor to many government committees, he has been able to infuse life into some of the potentially dry economics courses he teaches at Babson.

From the beginning, Mr. Kerekes has enjoyed a great personal popularity among the students for his warm personality and willingness to work with his students advising them on both academic and personal problems. For these characteristics we humbly pay tribute with the dedication of this book.

DEDICATION

Babson Institute's raison d'etre is its contribution to the economic stream of American life through the media of graduating business-trained men of executive ability.

The complexity of modern day business begs for technically trained men. However, technical ability is not the entire answer; there is a need for creative thinking stimulated by the humanities.

The combination of these two factors gives today's businessman not only the tools of his profession, but also the imagination with which to advance.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

BABSON INSTITUTE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Office of the President

To the Members of the Class of 1959:

You are now at the end of your stay with us at Babson Institute, and it seems appropriate that a few words should be said, not about the world into which you are about to enter, but about you, yourselves.

During your three years at Babson Institute you have had an opportunity to compare yourselves with each other in many ways. If your observations have not been unduly distorted by vanity or humbleness you must have discovered not only many of your strong points, but many of your weak points as well. For your strength you should be thankful; by your weakness you should not be discouraged.

There are certain basic characteristics in all of us which are the result of heredity and these are not subject to any appreciable change by any means now known. Some of these may be undesirable. Since we cannot change them to any great degree we must make our peace with them. We must not consume our energy in berating ourselves for those shortcomings for which we are not to blame and over which we can have little control. When we have once been able to view ourselves squarely, we must purge our souls of self-pity and make the best of what we have. In this way, we can achieve peace with ourselves which forms the basis for our capacity to live in peace with others. In a world in which team work is of primary importance, and this is especially true in the business world, the capacity to keep the peace, to keep the sparks which normally fly in a highly competitive environment from becoming a major conflagration, is a virtue beyond price. It is, in fact, the basic virtue, because life can eventually break the man who does not possess some of it, whatever his other attributes may be.

When peace within ourselves has been even partially attained, we may receive a happy surprise. The energy released with the cessation of our inner conflict is at our disposal for constructive uses both within ourselves and in the world without. Many seemingly insuperable obstacles in our paths vanish like the mists of the morning, but more important, many of our personal weaknesses which we had formerly assumed to be unchangeable, vanish before the onslaught of our newly found strength.

Usually, this process of growth is only begun here at the Institute, but once it has begun it can, and often does, continue throughout life. To meet our alumni and observe their intellectual and spiritual stature has been the most heartfelt pleasure which I have experienced over the years.

You are about to become alumni. May you be blessed with the same success and fullness of life as those who have gone before.

Sincerely,

Gordon M. Trina

BABSON INSTITUTE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

BABSON PARK 57, MASSACHUSETTS

Class of 1959
Babson Institute
Babson Park 57, Massachusetts

To the members of the class of '59:

It is my pleasure to welcome you, the graduates of the class of 1959, to the Alumni Association of Babson Institute.

We hope that you will all be active members of our organization. Throughout the country you will find alumni clubs, anxious to welcome you, where you will meet old friends and make new ones. You will receive a directory listing all alumni according to geographical areas so you can make associations wherever you go.

The Institute has equipped you well so make your start in the business world. Your Alumni Association will do all in its power to aid you in any problems you may have in the business world.

We hope that you will call upon us to serve you and that you will also contribute your time and services to make your Alumni Association larger and stronger.

Sincerely,

Philip B. Heald

SENIORS

CLASS HISTORY

A long time ago, in September of 1956, an eager group of new Freshmen began their three year struggle towards receiving their degrees. Aptitude tests dominated our first four days but, this situation was soon relieved by a mixer-dance with the girls from Lasell. We had started on our journey.

We soon organized ourselves into a formal class by electing the men to lead us during the first year. Our choices proved to be good ones with having Ed Chapin, President; Doug Wales, Vice-President; Adrian Heap, Secretary; and Bob Basset, Treasurer. After going through the painful process of paying class dues, we celebrated with our first class party. This was only the forerunner of good things to come. The school year was soon over and those of us still left took our well deserved three month summer vacation and rested for our second bout with Babson.

Returning for our Junior year, we congratulated ourselves for not having been as ignorant as the new batch of Freshmen and set about to help them become oriented. Elections brought in a new slate of class officers, Jack Morris, President; Stu Silbaugh, Vice-President; Tucker Miller, Secretary; and Steve Briggs, Treasurer. Green Acres was the scene of the first social function in the form of a "Shipwreck Blast". During the winter term, we held a semi-formal dance at the Sandy Burr Country Club. A clam bake on sunny Duxbury Beach rounded out the year. Sandwiched between these social functions, we still managed to find time to study and dig up sources for our Industry Survey progress report, a small picture of big things yet to come.

Our Senior year was the most active both socially and academically. Starting with a dance at the Sydney Hill Country Club, our next social event was an informal gathering to celebrate the completion of our I. A.'s. Spring term was glorious with Senior Weekend featuring a dance at the Commonwealth Country Club on a Friday night and a picnic the next day. The all-school Spring Weekend closed our social functions.

Commencement was merely a beginning and we are all looking forward to a wonderful future. We feel that what we have learned here at Babson will be of immeasurable benefit to us throughout our lives, especially the friendships formed here. We thank our instructors for all of their teachings and guidance and we wish each other the best of good fortune and happiness in the future.

As a major part of the United States Army's program to send selected personnel to civilian universities, the Ordnance Corps assigns a group of officers to Babson Institute each year. By December, 1959, this program will have provided advanced management instruction to thirty-four officers ranging in grade from captain to lieutenant colonel. Working in most cases for an MBA degree, these officers have their regular courses integrated with a summer assignment at the Army's Watertown Arsenal, a tour of local industrial facilities, and a fall program at the Army's Boston Ordnance District. These activities are conducted under the direction of Colonel Lawrence J. Meyns, USA (Rtd) who is chairman of Babson's Division of Management and Production.

From Babson these officers move to three-year utilization tours in the management field with assignments as procurement officers, comptrollers, program coordinators, and operating managers in Ordnance. Activities range from research, design, production, procurement to combat support of fighting equipment. The variety of end-items extends from hand weapons through artillery, tanks, automotive vehicles, nuclear and conventional munitions to guided missiles and satellites. The Ordnance Corps has prime responsibility for the Army's fighting hardware. The Babson Institute Industrial Management Course under supervision of the Ordnance Training Command is aimed at increased efficiency and economy in defense activities.

The class of 1960 had a very successful year participating in various activities ranging from the Frosh tug-of-war first term to the annual Junior dance third term. The interim was filled by some constructive school studies to give us a good balance. The class officers under the leadership of Tony Coote, President; Bob Cremonni, Vice-President; George Dunnington, Secretary; and Peter Wilson as Treasurer did an excellent job and the entire class is thankful to them for a job well done.

Our class participated in the mayoralty campaign combining forces with Alpha Delta Sigma and Alpha Kappa Psi fraternities. The candidate we sponsored was Ed, "Caesar Rabbit," Rappaport who did an excellent performance as an Al Capone gangster.

April 18 was the night of our "Night in the Caribbean" dance which was a complete success. Howie Linstead, our class social chairman, surprised everybody with pineapple and coconut decorations to add to the environment of the dance.

In sports, the Junior Class played a basketball game against the Freshmen Class which we won. The season ended before we had a chance to play the Seniors, but we all still had a good time for our physical efforts. The men you see in the accompanying pictures have all had an excellent year, and we look forward to the same success when we are seniors.

FRESHMAN OFFICERS

The history-making class of 1961 started off their first year with a revolution which will be long remembered. This event proved that the class was a forceful group, closely knit, and willing to stand up for what they believed in.

For the first time in history freshman officers were elected in the fall term. They included Peter Holtje, President; Stanley Whitcomb, Vice-President; Peter Fenton, Secretary; and Lindsey Rice, Treasurer. As the necessity arose for the treasurer to be replaced, Tod Schweizer was elected by the Class Council and proved to be an able replacement.

Class functions for the year included a tour of the Carling's Brewery in the fall, the movie "Giant" and a dance afterwards, and an outing at the end of the year.

The Freshman class as a whole was seen to be extremely active and able in intramural and varsity sports. It is expected that the new regime of school and class spirit is here as never before and will be instilled in classes to come after as well.

Blue Key, whose motto is "Serving, I live", is a national honor fraternity founded in 1924. Its purposes are to serve the community and fellow college students. Members are chosen on the basis of character, personality, and leadership quality in scholarship and college activities. The Babson chapter of Blue Key has served its community and school since it was chartered in 1951. This year, the chapter conducted the Student Council and class officers elections, ushered at all-school assemblies, coordinated the Mayoralty campaign, and cooperated with the Student Council in the revision of the voting procedure for conducting elections. Six brothers of the chapter were chosen to be included in the 1959 edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

ALPHA

The Spirit of St. Louis was the theme of the fraternity's float for Winter Carnival.

The brotherhood of Alpha Delta Sigma enjoyed another full, profitable, and successful year due to the fine work of President David Bamberger, Vice-President Russell Chamberlin, Secretaries John Wager and Stan Issokson, and Treasurer Dick Snyder. With the cooperation of all the brothers, many professional and social events were enjoyed.

The year's activities began, on the professional side, with several interesting field trips and guest speakers, and on the social side, with an alumni party. In December, the annual Christmas Party for underprivileged children was held with our advisor, Mr. Bertrand Canfield, acting as Santa Claus. It was a most rewarding experience for the brothers and their guests.

Throughout the year, the brotherhood was very pleased to receive many letters from our adopted Korean son, Kim Chol Soo. Writing to Kim and sending gifts at Christmas, brought a close sense of unity to the fraternity.

January saw the annual Snow-Ball Dance held for the entire student body and it was attended by a record number of lighthearted students. Winter Carnival Weekend was fittingly opened with a gala Playboy Cocktail Party in the Plymouth Suite of the Sheraton Plaza. At this time, it was announced that the chapter had been awarded the President's Cup Award in recognition of its achievement of first place in national competition with all the other chapters of Alpha Delta Sigma.

The fraternity's professional activities were culminated with the annual Robert Murray Memorial national advertising contest. Winners from several states were entertained by the chapter and advertising clubs around Boston. This served to build good will for the chapter and for Babson.

For the remainder of the year, fraternal unity and spirit was strengthened by the members participating in inter-fraternity athletics, charitable work, further professional activities, and an enjoyable social program. A closing Bar-B-Q towards the end of the spring term held for the brothers and Alumni, brought a most successful year to a happy conclusion.

The Alpha Delta Sigma Christmas Party for orphan children was a big success again.

The Alpha Kappa Psi vs. Delta Sig football game.

This year saw Gamma Nu commence its activities with tremendous spirit and brotherhood and a highly successful Phoenician Ball. The fall term pledge class participated in two very successful field trips, one to the L. G. Balfour Co. in Attleboro and the other to the New York Stock Exchange. Gamma Nu also joined with their brothers at Boston College and Boston University for a dance. The fraternity closed its books for the fall with ten new brothers.

The cold winter months were busy and highly successful for Alpha Kappa Psi. Gamma Nu instituted another first with a spectacular dance at the Blue Hills Country Club where the brothers were hosts to 200 guests. The winter term also boasted "Operation Light Blub", a door-to-door sales campaign of selling light blubs to raise money to aid the Heart Fund. We ended the term by initiating 23 more brothers.

Spring term proved to be the apex of the fraternity's activities for the 1958-1959 year with two firsts added to the roster. The brotherhood became the first fraternity to visit the Avco Research Center on a field trip. The crowning glory however, was the sponsoring of Erroll Garner on May 17th by the Gamma Nu chapter. Truly, Gamma Nu had a wonderful year and the brotherhood appreciates the fine leadership of the executive council.

Some of the brothers and dates before the winning Winter Carnival float by Delta Sigma Pi.

This past year saw the greatest achievement ever for the brotherhood of Delta Sigma Pi which was highlighted by a membership of over 50 and the winning of the Winter Float Contest for the second successive year. Other features of the year were a closed dance at the Oakley County Club in the fall; a ski, skate, and toboggan trip to Western Massachusetts in the white winter; and the annual spring "Down on the Farm" party.

The brotherhood won the interfraternity football championship and enjoyed several field trips and professional speakers. Included as guest speakers, were men from a plastics molding plant, a member of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Board, a member of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, a broker from A. C. Allyn & Sons, and a Babson Graduate who owns his own interstate bus line.

During the past year, 23 new men received the pin of "Delta Sig" for an all time high at Babson for men initiated into a campus fraternity. We thank our President George Hunter, Vice-Presidents Douglas Wales and Warren Swim, Secretary Michael Tyson, Treasurer Don Jones, and Fernando Hernandez for the wonderful job which was done with the aid of our faculty advisor, Mr. Walter Carpenter.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The basic objective of the Student Council is "to represent, promote, and further the interests of the student body among the students, faculty, and any other parties concerned." It may be stated safely that this year, the objective was accomplished in almost every respect.

Many new policies and undertakings were originated as a result of the council's concern for the best course of action. Able leadership was provided by President Tucker R. Miller and his executive committee. The social committee, headed by Doug Wales and Steve Ramsey, arranged a memorable Winter Carnival and Spring Weekend that was considered by most participants as the best ever held at Babson.

Some of the particular outstanding accomplishments of this year's Student Council may be mentioned in retrospect. They included metal parking tags for student's cars, the establishment of a council "reserve for contingencies fund", improvements of the student licensing laws, and voting procedure, a tremendous Winter Carnival that was greatly enhanced by the singing of Sarah Vaughn at the formal, and an original Spring Weekend that included a sea cruise to Martha's Vineyard with a dixieland band aboard.

BABSONIAN

The Babsonian this year is at least in our estimation the best yearbook a graduating class at Babson has ever possessed. There are many new and distinctive features in our yearbook such as full-color dividers; a special custom-bound cover; a new method of printing; and a more complete coverage. Many of these technical improvements add much quality to the publication, but still they are not a yearbook within themselves. It is a working combination of a good staff and these additional items that comprise a top quality publication. The 1959 Babsonian was very fortunate in having many excellent staff members who contributed much time and effort to this work.

Editor Ed Kittredge started early in the year to obtain a good crew of assistants. Bill Waldron, Layout Editor; Ed Wardwell, Literary Editor; John Wagerer, Photography Editor; Ron Smith, Sports Editor; and Willard Hern, Associate Editor, all did their part toward the successful completion of this publication.

Many thanks are also due to the students who contributed their part in the administrative aspect of the yearbook. Dick Elwell, Richard Allison, and Dick Snyder are to be especially commended here for their many hours of work in the typing of the manuscript.

Editor-in-Chief, Ed Kittredge and Business Manager, Jerry Graff talk about the yearbook.

GLOBE NEWS

Editor-in-chief, Warren Tourtellot and Business Manager, Bill Marcus discuss the newspaper.

The Babson Globe-News started the school year off with a new face and several new staff members. The shift from a four column format to a five column sheet was designed for easier reading and a more pleasing appearance.

C. R. Sheppard, Charles Capper, Bob Blount, and Ron Smith all kept the students busy reading their weekly specialty columns. The feature editors, Norm Cohen and Bert Bronander provided a variety of feature articles at the same time. Bob Welling and Alan Robbins flashed the latest campus news to the press room for their share of the newspaper. Madison Avenue's gift to Babson, Ed Rappoport, got more than enough advertisements to keep Business Manager, Bill Marcus, happy. The layout department under Pete Buchanan threw the entire mess into some semblance of order. From here the Joe Cohen and Jim Manning Distribution Company rushed the finished product off to the Babson newsstands. The entire operation was under the tactical command of Editor-in-Chief Warren Tourtellot.

ADVANCEMENT OF MANAGEMENT

The Babson chapter of S.A.M. started out the year with a great honor to live up to, first place in the nation. With every anticipation of repeating as first chapter in the nation, a fine program was developed. This program was centered around the unusually fine speakers, interesting field trips, and many other highlights. The Young Presidents Organization sponsored a fine program in December that was open to the entire school. During January and February S.A.M. conducted a very successful series of job counseling assemblies. For the second straight year, S.A.M. also sponsored the mayor of the winter carnival.

Needless to say, S.A.M. has had a very profitable and enjoyable year. This fact is indicated by the fact that the Babson chapter is again strongly contending for the number one position in the annual national performance rating. This rating is based on a competitive program conducted among the National Organization of 151 College and University chapters in the Western Hemisphere. The entire organization is thankful for the excellent leadership that was exemplified by Len Parrott and the executive council.

S.A.M. was host to job counseling assemblies for the entire school.

STUDENT CABINET

Blue Key President, Don Bolger, awards the Key to the Babson campus to Major Jack Morris.

The Student Cabinet is composed of the Presidents and leaders of all campus organizations on the Babson campus. Meetings are not held on a regular basis, but only whenever a problem calling for consideration by the entire group is necessary. Thus, meetings are called at the invitation of the Director of Student Activities, or at the request of any of its members, at which time the President of Blue Key presides.

The purpose of Student Cabinet is to foster the extra-curricular activities in general, and to further the interest of the various organizations on campus by mutual cooperation. This year, President Don Bolger did an excellent job in coordinating the various organizations to their mutual satisfaction.

AVIATION CLUB

In 1948 the Babson Aviation Club, Incorporated was founded. The purpose of this organization is to give Babson Students an opportunity to learn how to fly at very reasonable rates. The Club's airplane, an Aeronca Chief, is based at Westboro, Massachusetts. Qualified instructors are available for those people who are learning how to fly. Aviation Club meetings are held twice monthly and are all open to Babson students who desire to become aviators.

B CLUB

Watch for the ceiling!

The "B" Club was started in the spring of 1958 for the purpose of instilling spirit and interest in sports among the student body and the faculty here at Babson. The club membership is made up of those men who exhibit the purposes of the club. They must have earned a varsity letter in sports and maintain a good academic standing.

Although a new club, the members made many advancements in increasing the interest and spirit of sports in school life. With the expansion of the gymnasium, the club undertook to increase school participation and spectators at sports events. They published programs for all games, oriented the freshmen to the school's all around facilities and handled publicity in alumni and city papers. Their efforts were rewarded when 550 spectators turned out to support the basketball team in its home opener game.

BUSINESS ECONOMICS CLUB

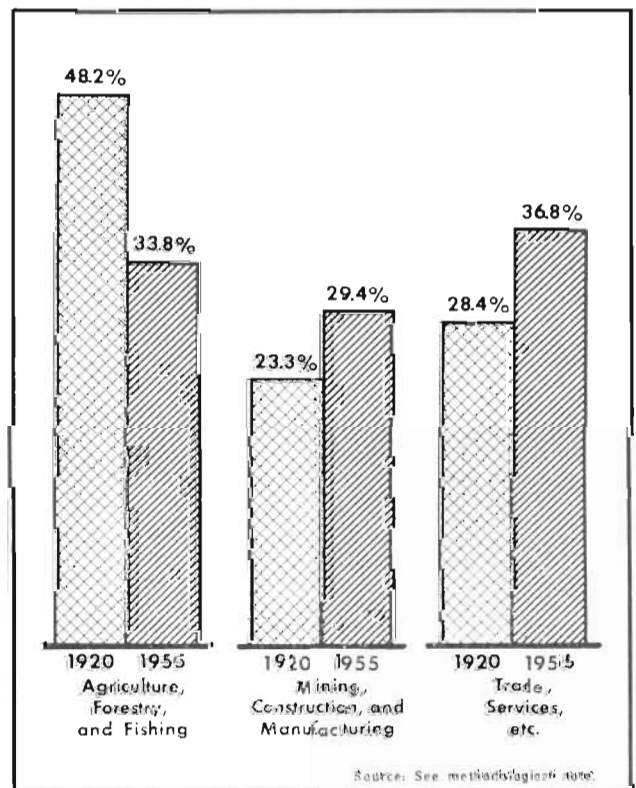

This year the Business Economics has had some fascinating field trips and interesting talks by some of our leading businessmen.

As has always been the policy of the Economics Club, our meetings are informal and educational. Speakers from the field of business, education, and government have given us some idea of the underlying currents that motivate our economy.

Some of our past speakers have been the General Manager of the Edsel-Mercury division of the Ford Motor Company; The head of the Foreign Department of the National Shawmut Bank, and several other interesting speakers. Field trips have included the Boston office of International Business Machines and the Keystone Fund of Boston.

For the first time this year, the Business Economics Club held joint meetings with the Vets Club in order to obtain outstanding speakers. We hope this arrangement will continue to work as well in the future.

The Business Economics Club works in close coordination with most economics majors at Babson. Our advisor is Dr. Frank Genovese who is currently head of the Economics Department of Babson.

GLEE CLUB

The Babson Glee Club at Honors Day.

The Babson Institute Glee Club managed to survive another year of fluctuating membership under the guidance of Mr. Frederick Harris and President Edward Shulkin. The club sang at many events, but among the more special occasions were Founders Day, Honors Day, and the Graduation.

The bright spot of the year came when the Lasell and Babson Glee Clubs met in the Foc'e'sle to entertain each other with their repertoires of songs. After the songfest, there was an informal record dance at which time coffee and doughnuts were served.

All in all the Glee Club had a very enjoyable year. Rehearsals were held every Tuesday evening and were usually followed by an after-hours party. Participation was always very good in the after-hour rehearsal we might add.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club at Babson is a Roman Catholic Club which is part of the National Federation of Newman Clubs, located throughout the United States.

We have as our patron and namesake, John Henry Cardinal Newman, a nineteenth century scholar of England, who was philosophical enough to insist that God and theology be at the center of an ideal curriculum. We accomplish this purpose through our religious, intellectual, and social activities, which intensify our love and knowledge of God. This past term, Reverend Arthur F. LeBlanc, a Paulist Father was appointed Chaplain of our Club through the graciousness of Richard Cardinal Cushing. Under his most capable guidance and the leadership of our officers, the Newman Club progressed to new heights.

Our program consisted of speaker meetings on Freud, Psychiatry, and the Church; Marriage; The death of Pius XII and our new spiritual leader, Pope John XXIII; and Censorship, to mention just a few. We also had joint meetings with Lasell and Pine Manor, communion breakfasts, and a Forum on the "After-life," in which a Jewish Rabbi, a Protestant Minister, and our own Father LeBlanc discussed how they look at the spiritual concept of life after death.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Photography Club at Babson Institute has served for years in a dual capacity. It has not only provided pleasure for those who pursue the hobby of photography, but it has also provided a valuable service to Babson. This past year, members of the Photography Club contributed professional caliber pictures to the Public Relations Office, "Babsonian", "Babson Globe News", and the Alumni Bulletin. The Club members can also boast of a completed renovated darkroom with all of the latest equipment in Photography. With these new facilities, the Club hopes to expand itself for the coming year and take a more active part in Babson Institute campus life.

SAILING CLUB

The Sailing Club made the big move at Babson this year. With the cooperation of the Wellesley Recreation Committee a plan was developed so that the boats could be used at Morse's Pond in Welleslev. Because the boats were only ten minutes away with this arrangement, membership grew rapidly to about forty.

In the Fall term the freshmen sailing term qualified in the 1st elimination of the New England area. The varsity was also quite active in the fall and spring, and was selected first alternate in the McMillion Cup Regatta. Our sailing team placed in a number of competitive races at MIT, Brown, Coast Guard, and Tufts Yacht Clubs.

With the boats now so much closer, it is expected that the sailing club members will be able to increase their sailing ability. With this objective in mind, the sailing club is looking forward to a better inter-collegiate standing in next year's races.

Many thanks are due to Steve Ramsey who primarily promoted the growth of the club.

SPORTS CAR CLUB

The newest club on campus, The Babson Institute Sports Car Club, has made itself very quickly known around campus and at other colleges throughout New England. Babson sports car drivers traveled from Connecticut to Maine this year to compete in events with fellow drivers from other colleges and clubs. The name of Babson won a great deal of respect as its members gave more established sports car clubs many defeats.

With the cooperation of the administration, the club has been able to bring two "gymkhanas" to campus this year using the large area of the main parking lot. The club was also one of the founding members of the Intercollegiate Sport Car Authority. Almost any day, the members can be seen driving or maintaining their cars in the way of true enthusiasts.

The Theatre Guild production of Sandy Wilson's, "The Boyfriend," helped to make the 1959 winter Carnival the best ever. If audience reaction or enthusiasm can be interpreted as any criterion of success, then truly this performance was the success. All of the members of the cast turned in excellent performances with special note to the thespians from Pine Manor and Lasell Junior Colleges. Mrs. Dee French, the director, did a splendid job in her direction of the entire cast. Mrs. French's very able assistant, William Ripner, also contributed his time and effort to the success of the play.

"The Boyfriend," which is a musical comedy of the 1920's is brimmed with charlestons and flappers. The infectious humor and air of just plain fun that was exemplified by the cast overflowed itself into the audience. The end result was a very enjoyable imaginary journey into the era of the "roaring 20's". Miss Marilyn Miller of Lasell Junior College did a wonderful job of choreography which was quite prevalent in all of the musical numbers. Actually the audience missed the best part of the show, for this was the behind the scenes mechanisms of the show. The manner in which the performers managed to run back and forth inbetween scenes and not hit any of the scenery is still a question to be answered. With this thought in mind, special recognition should be given to Ted Richardson and all of the members of the stage crew.

VETERANS CLUB

The school year 1938-59 will always be remembered as the year of the Military Parody Ball. This event, held at the Motel 128 Ballroom on Nov. 22nd was one of the most popular dances of the year. "Sheriff" and Mrs. Foley and Dr. and Mrs. Trim were chaperones that night.

The blood drive under Vet's Club sponsorship was most successful. For the first time the limitations were the facilities available and not the number of donors. The new Wilhelm Bronander trophy was won by Babson with Pine Manor and Lasell coming in second and third respectively in this contest.

Not to be forgotten was the Talent Night Contest which was M.C.'d by Charlie Capper and assisted by Chris Sheppard and Charlie Berry. Margi Hoar from Lasell won the coffee maker, but the Helmsnaer from Babson and Dottie Roberts' Can Can dancers from Pine Manor did right well.

The members will remember the delicious roast beef dinner at Eagles Hall in Framingham and the wonderful time the Veterans have had throughout the year.

Dr. Trim started things rolling in early October with a "get acquainted" meeting. November saw the members engaged in floral arrangements so aptly demonstrated by Miss Evelyn Rogers. The Faculty wives also entertained with a display of the art of holiday decorations by Mrs. Merry.

Other activities during the year were the annual covered dish supper with cards and dancing afterwards. The bridge enthusiasts flourished under the able direction of our faculty bridge advisor, Mrs. Carpenter and her assistant Ann Waldron.

A swimming group was started with Mrs. Staake in charge and Bee Hilton assisting. It was good fun and exercise at the same time. Our busy year ended with a gala picnic, but not before everybody could remark what a wonderful year we had enjoyed.

WINTER CARNIVAL

Babson men and dates in good form.

Mayor Jack Morris about to announce Winter Carnival Queen.

The 1959 Winter Carnival was the greatest yet. It was kicked off with the Mayoralty campaign and election amid an abundance of imported female entertainers and supporters. Friday night, the formal was held at the Sheraton Plaza with Jack Edwards and his orchestra providing the music for the dance. At intermission Sarah Vaughn thrilled the gathering with a delightful display of vocal selections.

Jack Morris, the new Mayor of Babson, crowned the Queen of the Carnival, Miss Barbra Orr of Lasell Junior College. Saturday, there was a bicycle race won by the boys from Bryant Hall and a Dixieland band in the Fo'c'sle. At 3:00 p.m., the Theatre Guild presented a fabulous production of "The Boyfriend". That evening there was a party and dance at the Commonwealth Country Club.

Sunday, after a "Bromo Breakfast", everyone went to Mahogany Hall for some knocked-down, dragged out Dixieland to end a wonderful weekend.

MAYORALTY CAMPAIGN

During the week before Winter Carnival, the Candidates for Mayor of Babson kept the Park Manor dining hall in a state of utter chaos. Myriads of women flocked through at dinner time, people made speeches, and there were general shenanigans. One night, undaunted by fog and cold, a crowd gathered in the center of the quadrangle to watch thinly clad girls, hear speeches, and join in group singing assisted by a small dixieland band. The final appeal for votes came at Knight Auditorium with more girls, more speeches, and some slapstick comedy skits. The man finally chosen for Mayor of Babson was His Honor "Dazzle T. Fissnair", alias Jack Morris, a good choice!

Dedication game action.

The new Babson Gym was dedicated on the night of December 6, 1958 by President Gordon Trim before the basketball team's opening home game with Gordon. In dedicating the gym, President Trim expressed a hope that the gym would be an important part of the undergraduate curriculum here at Babson. The team lost the game to Gordon 83-70, but a late rally by Babson thrilled the capacity crowd. After the game, there was a sock-hop sponsored by the Babson "B" Club.

The new gym is one of the most modern in this area for a school the size of Babson. The gym itself can hold over 800 people for a basketball game. Other facilities include a handball and squash court, a badminton court, gymnastic equipment, and a game room plus the swimming pool that was completed a few years ago.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Athletic Council is made up of the representatives of the dorms that participate in the intramural athletic program. Their duties are to schedule games, head up their respective teams, and attempt to arouse interest in the program. This year's council was headed by Sam Telerico, and included Marv Finn of Off-Campus, Dick Elwell of South, Rufus Frost of North, Bob Cowles and Dick Duffy of Park Manor, Don Johnson of Publisher's, Wally Baker of Coleman, and Pete Wilson of Bryant.

This year's punchbowl competition turned into a three-way fight for first place between Off-Campus, Bryant, and defending champion South. South led through the first two terms on the strength of their showing in football and basketball. However, in the spring term Bryant and Off-Campus spurted ahead neck-and-neck. The final decision was in question until Off-Campus beat Bryant in softball to give them their first championship.

SOCCER

All eyes on the ball out of bounds.

One shot on goal coming up.

Soccer isn't all glory.

You're bothering me.

The soccer team had a rather rough season as they were able to win only three out of nine games. They beat Curry, Windham, and Bowdoin for these three victories. The team played in a rough league made up of schools that had no football teams so that everybody who liked contact sports went out for soccer. Babson was one of the smallest schools in this league. Because of the rough nature of the league, Babson was always having injured players. Coach Tedesco was not able to field his first string all at once after the opening game with Bridgewater.

The big victory of the season was the Bowdoin game that was won by Babson 7-2. Captain Yanes scored four goals in the last game of his college career. Gus Escobedo and Lope Mendoza also led the team on offense in this game. Freshman Harvey Feldman turned in a strong game in goal. He turned in a good year considering that this was his first year as soccer goalie in college. He even scored a goal when he played forward for part of the Windham game.

Escobedo was the leading scorer for the season with eleven goals followed by Yanes with six goals. Mendoza and Billy Knowles scored five for the season. Dolph Hanser and Fernando Fiore were next with two goals each.

 Second Row — Mgr. Brickelmaier, Ass't. Mgr. Feldman, and Coach Tedesco.

This year's basketball team was able to win five games this year, and two of these wins were by forfeit. However, the season had its bright moments because of the ability of the team to go on an offensive spree. Considering that it was a freshman-studded team, the future of the sport at the school seems bright. Jack Cahoon, Dave Patnaude, Bill Chipman, and Harold Benjamin were the four freshman that were on the starting team. Captain Dick O'Meara, the other starter, was the leading scorer on the team with an average of 22.7 points per game. O'Meara also was the leading field goal shooter percentage-wise for the entire country's small colleges. Patnaude and Cahoon averaged 16 and 13.2 points respectively to rank second and third on the team.

The opening home game of the season was the dedication game with Gordon. The stands were packed even though it was a Saturday night. Even though Babson lost the game, the spectators enjoyed both game and the sock-hop sponsored by the B Club afterwards. Before the game President Trim dedicated the Peavy Gym in a brief ceremony.

The team reached its greatest heights in the game with Burdett when two team records and two individual records were broken. The team scored 104 points and 56 points in the second half, which are both school records. Dick O'Meara scored 50 points and Jack Cahoon pulled down 28 rebounds, which were both individual records.

Looking back over the season, it can be readily observed that the scoring statistics tell the story. Babson scored an average of 72.1 per game, while their opponents averaged 84.4 points per game. The team was able to score, but their defense was weak. The team lost many high-scoring games because of their inability to contain the other team. Also, the team lacked bench strength. Most of the games were played with seven or eight players. When one of the starters got tired or accumulated personal fouls, the team was in trouble. The season proved that in order to win, you must have men to come off the bench and fill in adequately.

Cahoon pulls down another rebound.

GOLF

The golf team was the only winning team on the Babson campus this year. They were able to end up with a 5-4 record for the season. Their victories were over Bates, Bowdoin, Nichols Junior College, AIC, and Clark. The team also participated in the New England Intercollegiate Association Championships on May 7, 8, and 9 at Norwich, Connecticut. Out of twenty-two teams, Babson was tied for seventeenth place.

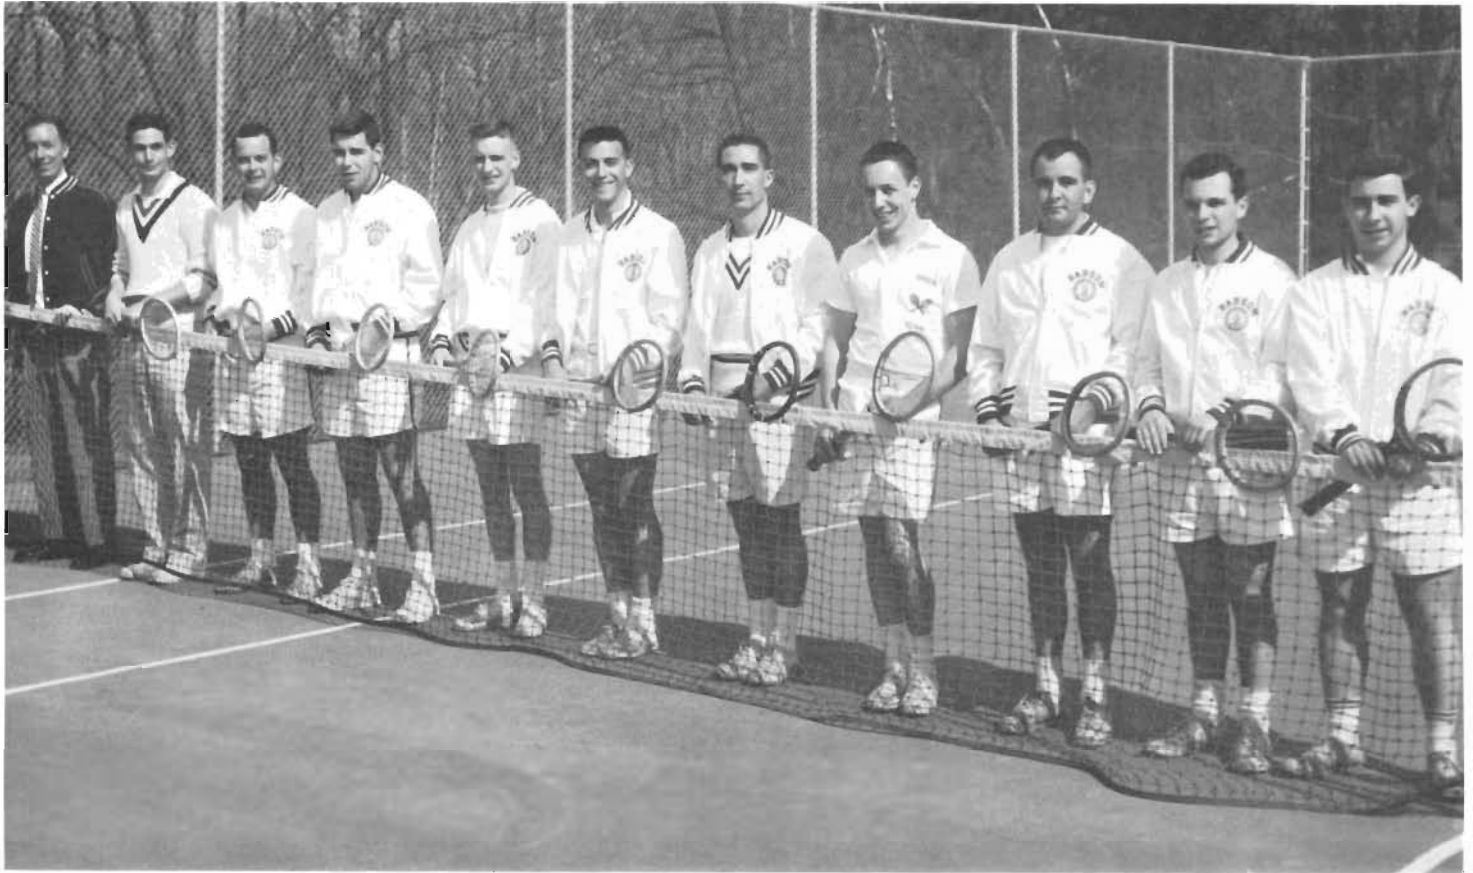

The big victory for the team was the Bowdoin match where they edged the Mainers 5-4. Buzz Heim, Harvey Allen, George Johnson, and Tom Hindle won their individual matches. However, the most thrilling match was between Captain Don Johnson of Babson and Houston of Bowdoin, who was one of the top players in New England this year. At the end of eighteen holes the two were tied up. They both got pars on the next two holes. On the twenty-first hole Johnson was able to once again par the hole, but Houston shot a birdie to win the match 1-up.

Tom Hindle was the leading winner for the season with six victories. Heim and George Johnson won five matches, and Don Johnson and Bob Libbey won four matches. Harvey Allen won three matches, and Dana Kellenberger won one match. Kellenberger was number one man and had to play the opponent's top man each time. He played well every time, but his opponents were usually too much for him.

The tennis team finished the season strong by winning their last three matches after dropping eight out of their first nine matches. They were able to beat AIC, Stonehill, Lowell Tech, and the University of New Hampshire. The final match of the season because their opponents were considered to be one of the strongest teams in the New England. In this match Ken Palmer, Jerry Hahn, and Fred Chafitz won their single matches, and the doubles teams of Tad Bowen and Jack Croasdale and Hahn and Chafitz won their matches to give Babson a well-deserved 5-4 victory.

Hahn was the leading winner in singles by winning seven out of eleven matches. Palmer won five out of nine matches. Next in line were Captain Bowen, Chafitz, and Croasdale won four matches. Dick Bristold and Charlie Crane won three matches. The most effective doubles team was the Bowen-Croasdale duo that was instrumental in the last three victories by the team.

Steve Hack, a second-year graduate student here at Babson, was the coach of the team for the first time this year. Steve was a former Purdue net star, and his first venture into the coaching ranks was rather successful, especially the big victory over New Hampshire.

Cover your men, he's back to pass.

A surprise run up the middle.

The football season this year provided some exciting, close ballgames. In the regular season South emerged victorious followed by Off-Campus North, and Bryant. South won the championship when they beat the runner-up Off-Campus team 20-12 as Bob Blount and Dick Elwell led the scoring.

In the post-season playoffs Bryant, who finished fourth in the regular season upset Off-Campus on an overtime field goal 9-6. South was hampered by an injury to Blount, suffered in the last minute of the Off-Campus game, and they fell to Bryant in the semi-finals. Off-Campus reached the finals by edging North in the closing minutes of their game.

INTRA MURAL SWIMMING

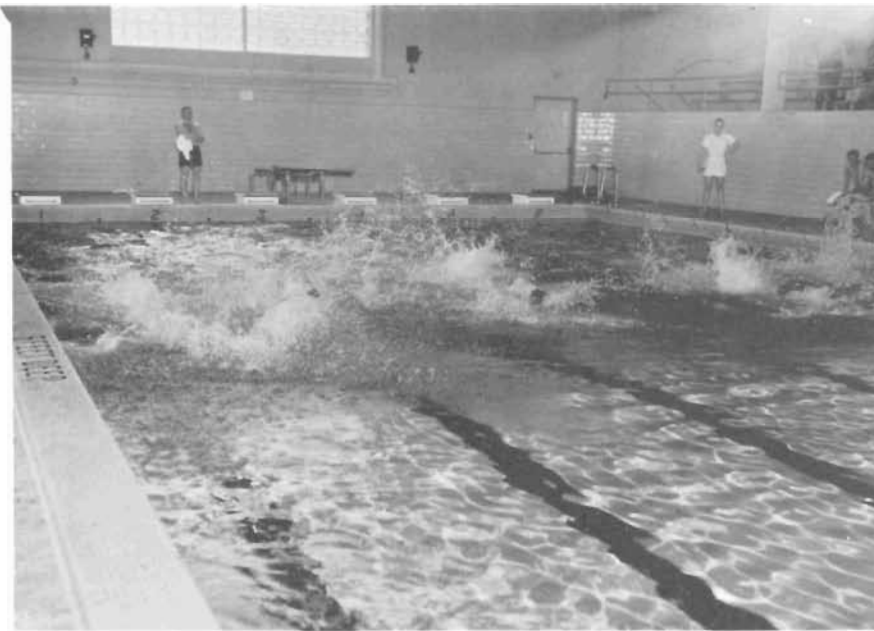

Bryant won the team honors, and one of their swimmers won individual honors in the intramural swimming championships held at the Millea Pool late in April. Dick Corcoran won the trophy that goes to the man who accumulates the most points in the competition.

The race for the team championship was close until the final two relays both won by Bryant. South came in second, and Off-Campus was third. The winning relay teams included Len Smith, Jones, Murphy, and Corcoran.

Corcoran won the individual honors on the strength of his ability to score in every event he entered including the diving. He gained $10\frac{3}{4}$ points, while Ed Rosenthal was second with $9\frac{1}{2}$ points followed by Phil Caswell with 8 points.

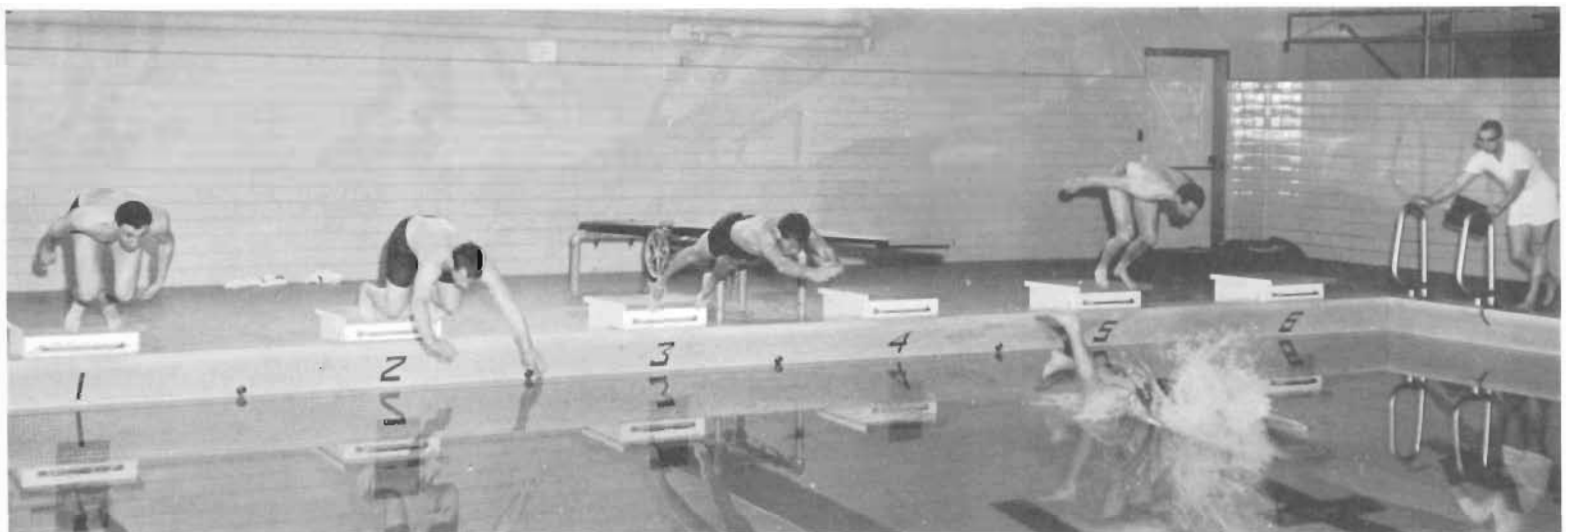

Too late now.

The race for intramural honors in basketball ended in a dead heat for first between Park Manor South and Bryant in the regular season, but South won the post-season playoffs to win the championships. Going into the last round, South was ahead in the standings with a 9-1 record while Bryant had a 7-3 record. However, in the last round, Bryant won all of their five games while South lost two out of five. The leading scorer for the regular season was Dick Duffy of Park Manor with an average of over 25 points per game.

In the playoffs South beat Pub-Coleman, and Off-Campus beat Bryant to gain the finals. South, behind Elwell, Miller, and Kellenberger, whipped Off-Campus 41-36 as they put down a determined rally by the losers. After trailing 25-12 at half time, Off-Campus tied the game up 32-all, only to fall behind again.

The Interfraternity Council is made up of representatives of the three fraternities on campus. It sets up the annual athletic competition between the fraternities. On this year's council were Marv Finn of Delta Sigma Pi, Stu Silbaugh of Alpha Kappa Psi, and Don Bolger of Alpha Delta Sigma.

This year's competition was a close race between Deltasig and AKPsi. Deltasig won the football crown by edging AKPsi 8-6 and ADS 19-18 in the last second of the game. In basketball AKPsi won the championship as they trounced both of the other fraternities. In softball Deltasig whipped ADS 19-7 while AKPsi beat them 6-1 to set up the final game of the season as the deciding game. Deltasig grappled an early lead and held off a late AKPsi rally to win 5-4. This victory gave them the softball championship as well as the interfraternity championship for the year.

GRADUATION

MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR . . .

For the second year, the 1959 Babsonian has made its appearance at Fall registration rather than the traditional Spring delivery. The effect of this change, we hope, will be evidenced by the most complete Babsonian that has ever been known at Babson. Several additional pages were added this year along with a number of full color bleeds. Also as a new innovation, the letterpress method of printing was introduced in our senior section to add more effectiveness to the photography.

Several people have contributed much of their time and effort in the preparation of this yearbook. Their sincere cooperation will always be greatly appreciated by the entire yearbook staff. Bill Waldron and Ed Wardwell, the Layout and Literary Editors respectively, both contributed many hours of work in the compilation of photos and captions. Virtually all of the candid photography was taken by John Wagerer who did an excellent job in this capacity. Our Business staff, under the chairmanship of Willard Hern, also contributed its share to keeping the yearbook a solvent undertaking. Dick Elwell, Jack Connolly, Dick Snyder, and Richard Allison also assisted Willard very ably in this department.

Ron Smith's was superb performance in gathering all of the Sports section of the Babsonian. Ronnie, I am sure, will even do a better job as Editor of the 1960 Babsonian. Space does not permit, but there are many other people who definitely should be noted for their generous contributions. Tucker Miller, Jerry Graff, George Hunter, Dave Bamberger, Peter Sengelmann, Ed Shulkin, Ira Chance, and many others, all are to be notably recognized. Lastly, but surely not least, our faculty advisor, Mr. Earl K. Bowen, is greatly to be thanked for his splendid job as yearbook advisor.

There were other people, not from Babson, but very close to the Institute who deserve special recognition. Among these are the entire staff of Bradbury, Sayles, O'Neill, Hurley, and Thomson, who handled the printing and photography for the 1959 Babsonian. Carroll Coates, Hank O'Neill, and Murray Modick all donated many hours of greatly appreciated work.

It is with these people in mind that the 1959 Babsonian is presented to the entire student body of Babson Institute. We sincerely hope that you will enjoy reading this book as much as we enjoyed preparing it.

A black and white photograph of a park scene. In the foreground, a man in a dark suit and a woman in a dark dress are walking together on a path. The woman is carrying a bag. To their left, three people are sitting on a wooden bench, looking away from the camera. In the background, there are trees and a city skyline with several tall buildings. A street lamp is visible on the right side of the frame. The word "ADVERTISERS" is printed in large, bold, black capital letters across the middle of the image.
